MINNESOTA CONGRESSIONAL
MEMBERS U.S. REP. MICHELLE
FISCHBACH AND U.S. REP. PETE
STAUBER ENDORSE BRAD FINSTAD FOR CONGRESS IN MN-1

New Ulm, MN — Minnesota Congressional Members U.S. Rep. Michelle Fischbach (MN-7) and U.S. Rep. Pete Stauber (MN-8) today endorsed Brad Finstad for Congress in MN-1. The Special Primary Election will be held on Tuesday, May 24, 2022.

Rep. Fischbach represents Minnesota's 7th Congressional District, the largest in the state encompassing most of western Minnesota. She defeated 30-year incumbent Collin Peterson in 2020. Rep. Stauber represents Minnesota's 8th Congressional District, including Duluth, the Iron Range, North Central and Northeastern Minnesota. He was first elected in 2018.

“This special election is extremely important as Republicans prepare to take back the majority in Congress – and Brad Finstad is hands-down our strongest Republican candidate,” said Rep. Stauber, a 23-year police officer and former professional hockey player. “Brad will fight for our way of life by protecting our God-given liberties in Congress. He is a strong conservative who will fight against the Biden-Pelosi agenda of record inflation and out-of-control government spending that is crippling working families. I look forward to working alongside Brad in Congress to secure our borders, ensure our elections are secure and conducted with integrity, and stop the radical politicians who are trying to control every aspect of our lives.”

“Brad Finstad will deliver on our conservative rural values in Congress,” said Rep. Fischbach, former Lt. Governor of Minnesota and former President of the Minnesota Senate. “He’s been a champion for the pro-life movement, he strongly supports our Second Amendment rights, and he is the candidate best positioned to defeat the Democrats and stop the failed Biden-Pelosi agenda in Washington.”

“I greatly appreciate the support of Rep. Fischbach and Rep. Stauber in this race,” said Finstad.

“Minnesota is fortunate to have these two strong conservative leaders as part of our congressional delegation. Our campaign is working hard every day to bring our pro-freedom, pro-family message to voters across our district. I would be honored to have the opportunity to serve alongside Rep. Fischbach and Rep. Stauber as the next congressman from Minnesota’s 1st congressional district.”
